Date:	13 April 2010	Time:	09:04

Article:

The Print Media SA's Awards Committee, SANEF and the Nieman Society of Southern Africa are now accepting nominations for the 2010 Nat Nakasa Award for Media Integrity.

Nat Nakasa was a prominent journalist and writer who died in exile. This annual award recognises any media practitioner - journalist, editor, manager or owner - who has:

- * Shown integrity and reported fearlessly;
- * Displayed a commitment to serve the people of South Africa;
- * Tenaciously striven to maintain a publication or other medium despite insurmountable obstacles;
- * Resisted any censorship;
- * Shown courage in making information available to the SA public;
- * Any combination of the above.

If you think anybody fits this definition, please submit your nomination before May 28, 2010 accompanied by a motivation of 300 words to:
