The Indian (and international) media are locked in a variety of new feuds with the IPL. This set of links below show the coverage on one aspect of the new terms - the new rules on audio-visual news coverage. Attached are the IPL terms for your attention and the highlighted section therein indicates the section which curbs news distribution depending on the ownership and/or scope of business by websites and news magazines.

As members of the NewsMedia Coalition and in support of their core mandate of ensuring freedom of the press, Print Media SA requests that you consider covering this issue in your publication, their statement on the issue is attached for your attention.
